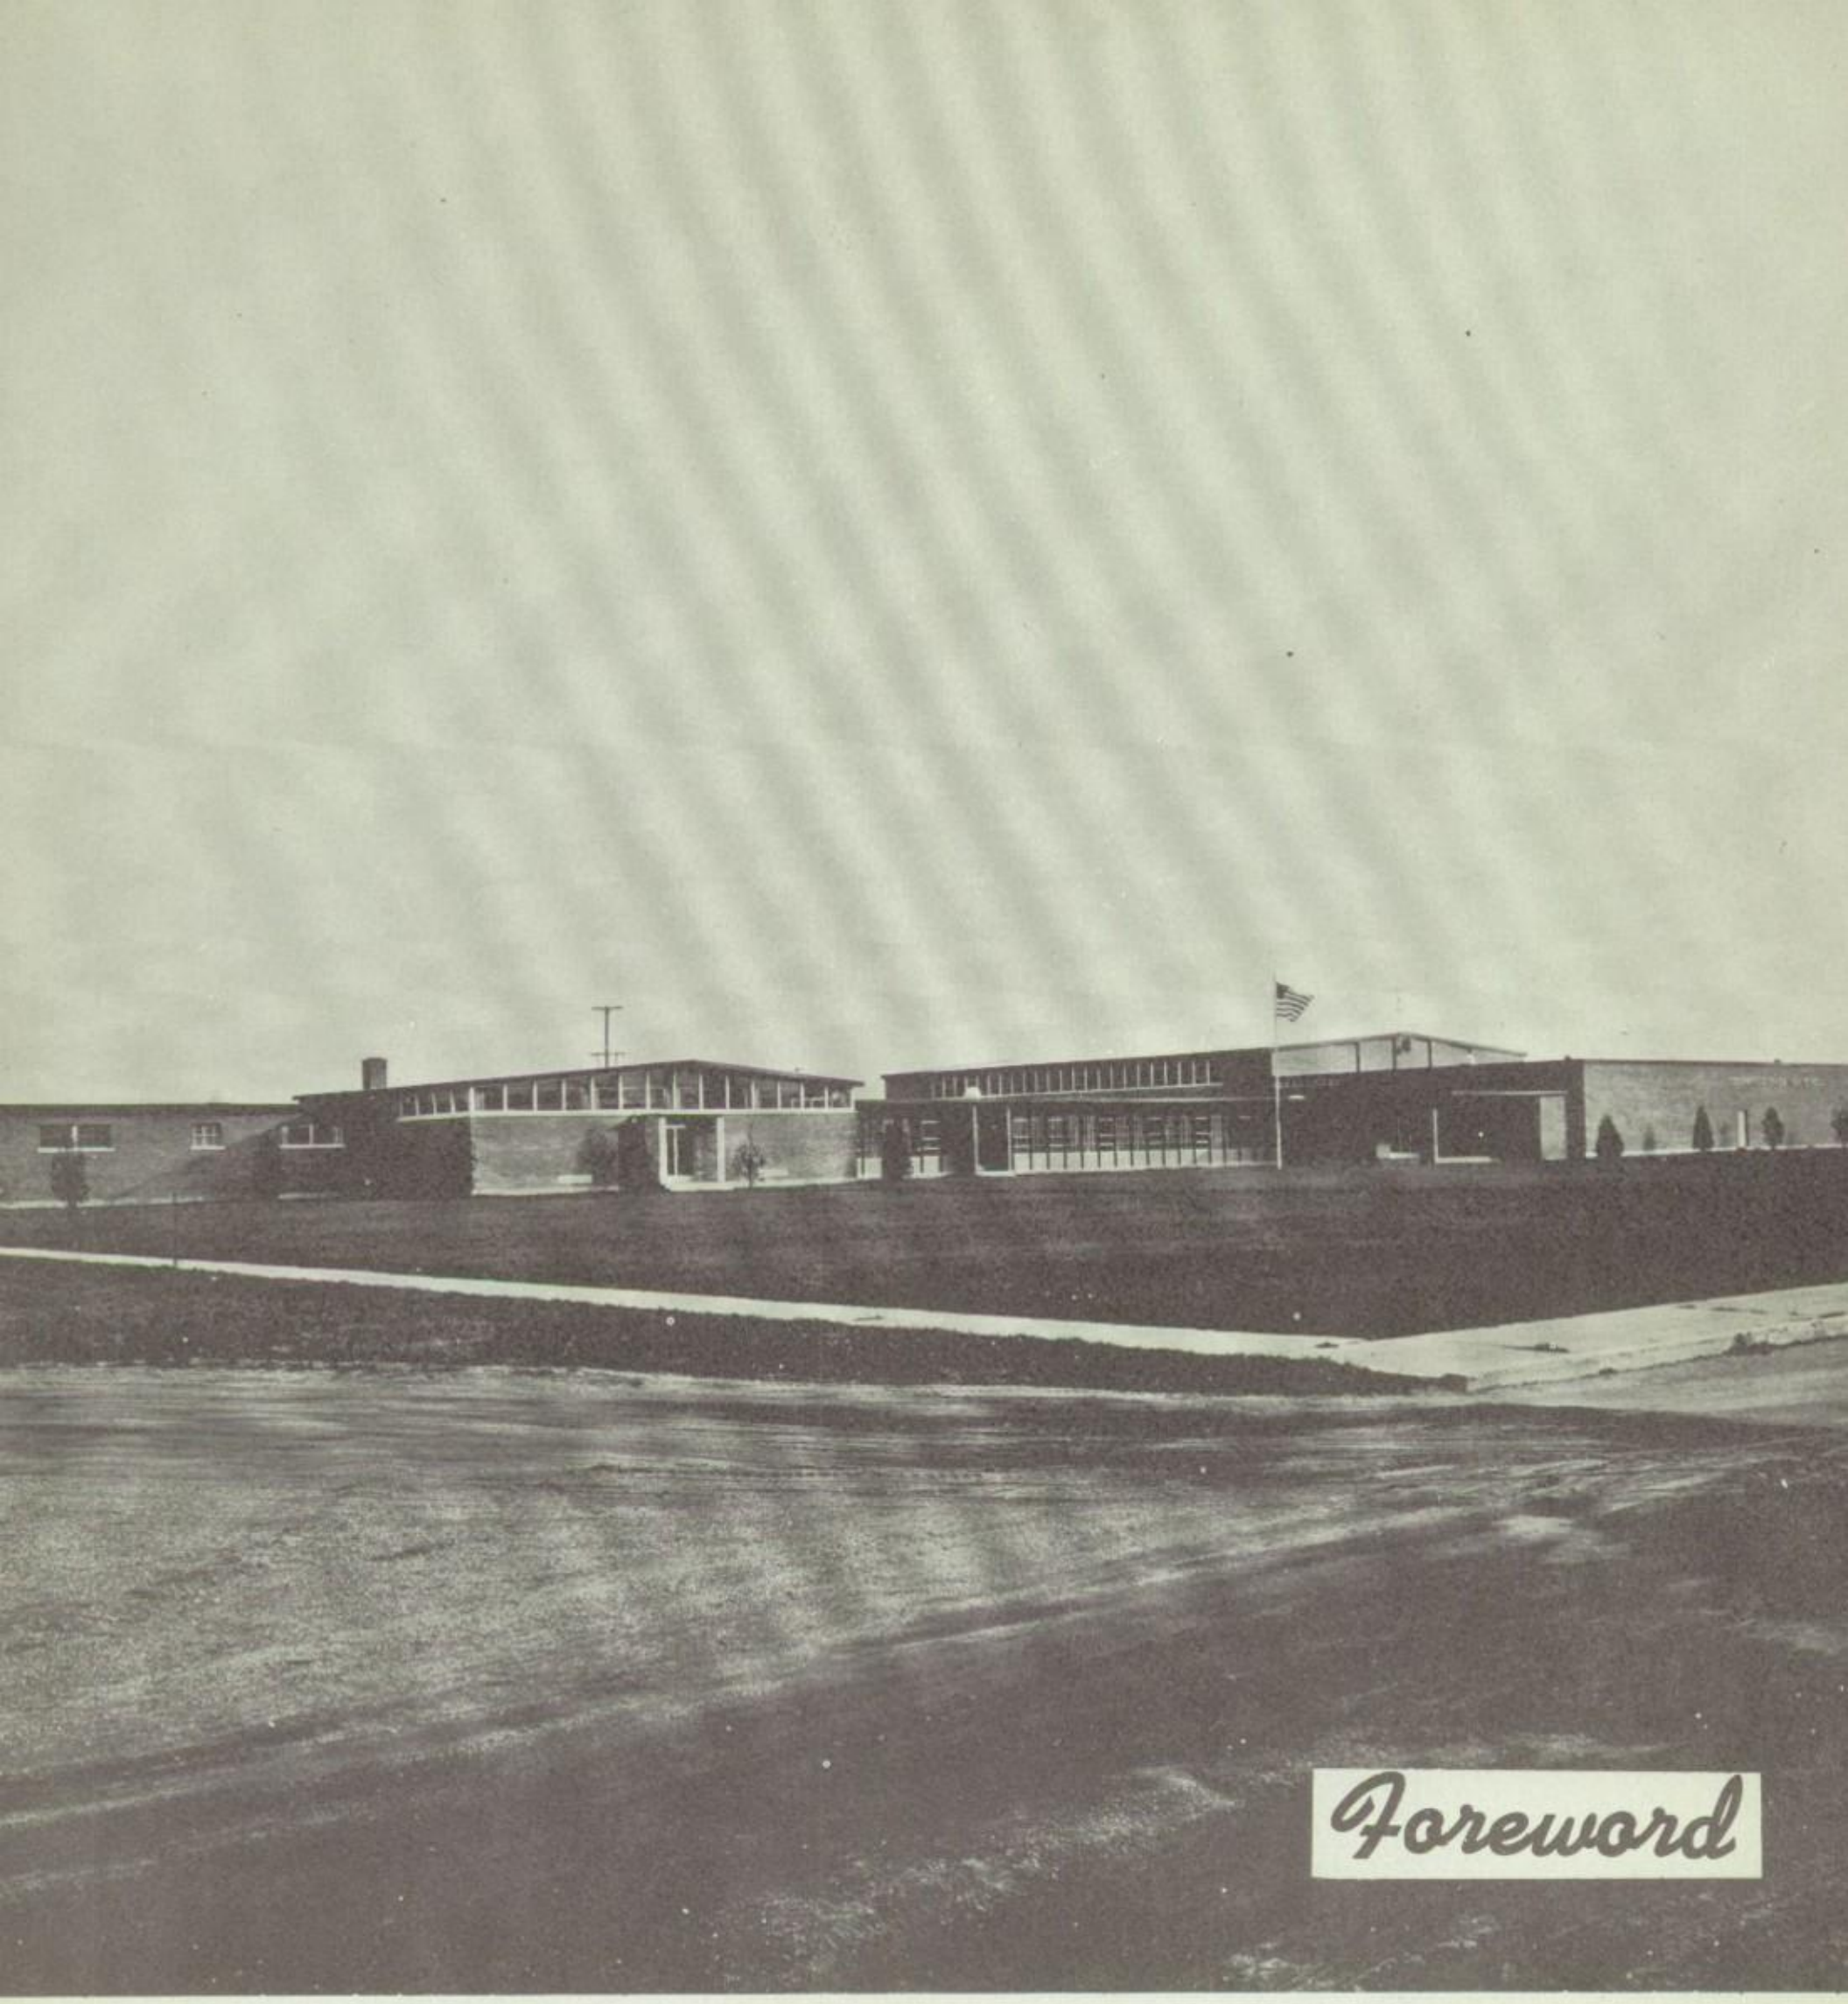
"A little learning is a dangerous thing;
Drink deep, or taste not the Pierian spring:
There shallow draughts intoxicate the brain,
And drinking largely sobers us again."
—Pope

As education is the source for all who seek to assume their position in an adult society, so our fountain is a symbol of these educational opportunities in our school. Although the focus of school life is on the academic, social, and athletic development are not neglected. Each student is encouraged to explore these areas according to his individual abilities and interests. It is with appreciation that we accept this privilege.



Foreword

With our theme of modern art we have endeavored to incorporate in this year's annual a combination of the traditional and the contemporary; just as the builders of our beautiful new school added modern ideas where they were practical and retained the features which have proven themselves worthy of retention. It is our sincere wish that this annual has succeeded in capturing a few of the memorable moments as well as the high points of the year here preserved. We, the staff of the 1964 ZENITH, are proud to present to the students, the faculty, and the community this, our yearbook — the final result of a year's diligent preparation.

MR. ALLEN ROBINSON, SUPERINTENDENT

"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew that one small head could carry all he knew," could easily have been said about Mr. Robinson. One finds upon asociation with this fine man that love and respect grows as grows the association.

He is respected for the amazing amount of facts concerning the efficient running of a school system. The constituents of Polkton 26, our school district, respect him for the way in which he comes to their aid whenever it is possible for him to do so. The teachers with whom he works respect him for the rapidity with which he answers in the affirmative when asked for something that will enrich the lives of the students under his guidance. And he is respected in the community for his work in the Rotary Club, the Methodist Church, and all of the other organizations to which he gives so unstintingly of his time.

To this fine man we of the 1964 ZENITH staff dedicate this, our annual. And along with the dedication we extend our very best wishes for continued success in education, the chosen profession of Allen G. Robinson, our beloved superintendent.

Exchange Students

"Hands across the sea" has grown to be a rather familiar phrase — perhaps in some instances a rather trite one. Yet, we in Coopersville High School have gained a deeper insight into the real meaning of these words. For we have shared our school life this year with two wonderful people from foreign countries.

Participating in the "Youth for Understanding" program, Christine Fidler from England and Sven Jensen from Denmark took their places among us this year. We're sure that lifelong friendships have been established, and we trust that each of us has a warmer spot in his heart for the countries that these two have so ably represented. We trust, also, that they will take with them to their respective countries the best wishes of all Americans who are eager to see peace and understanding become universal throughout our strife-torn world.

A Tribute

"One man with courage makes a majority." This is the effect John Fitzgerald Kennedy had on others. He was the symbol of truth and freedom to all who cherished his ideals. He believed that to stand fast for a principle, inspite of personal loss, was the quality that made courage in a man. It was toward that ideal that he modeled his life. And this in time gave heart to others. We of the 1964 Zenith Staff pay tribute to this man and to his courage.

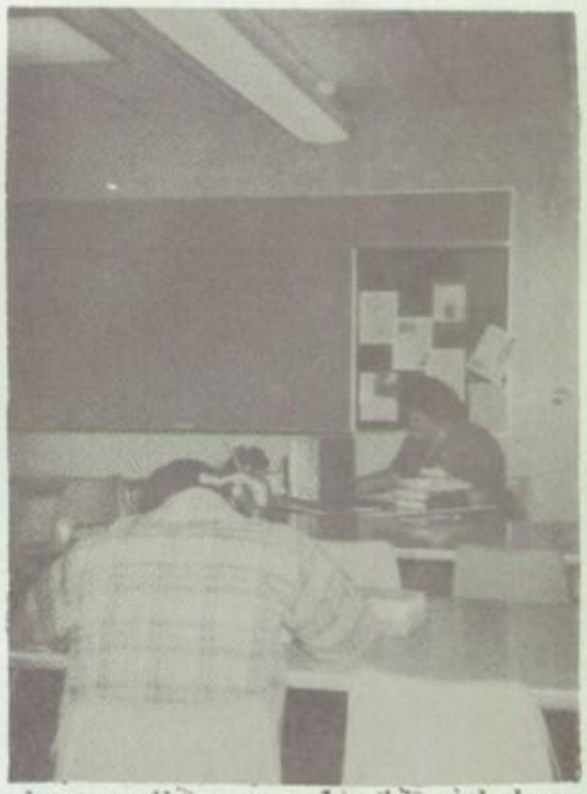
All boys at a football banquet? No wonder Mr. Conran, Mr. Miller, Mr. Hunsberger, Pat Miszewski, Dick Holman, and Mr. Kilpatrick look so bored!

"This is the way it's done," says Mr. Boeskool.

"You really goofed there, Marilyn Van Aelst," says Mr. Wiggers.

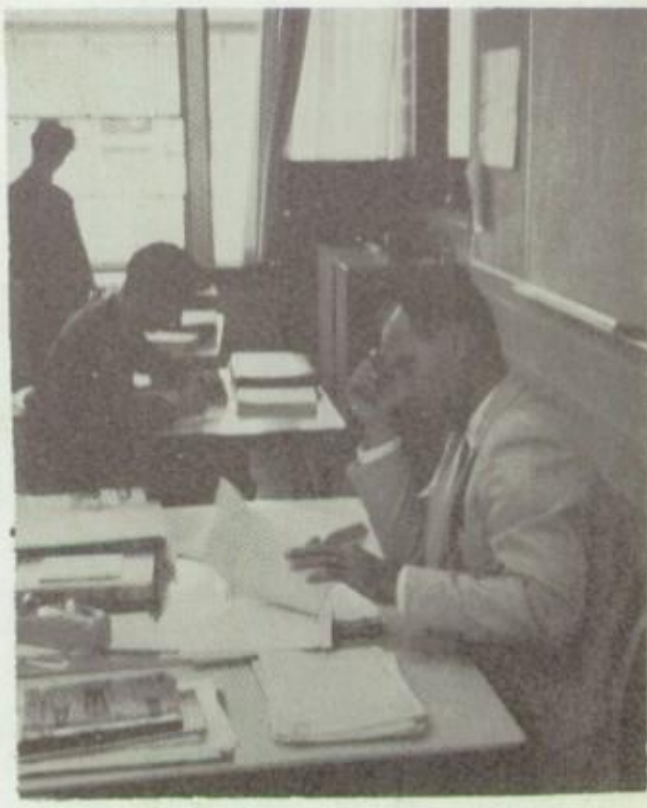
"What are those girls up to now," ponders Miss Streeter.



"You sit there until you get that blasted theme finished!" screams Miss Ramaker.

Faculty Candids

"Aren't we finished yet?" asks Dick Holman of Mr. Busman.



"Not another E," bursts forth Mr. McGarey.

Faculty

RUSSELL F. CONRAN, PRINCIPAL

Keeping the program of an ever growing school operating with smooth efficiency is not an easy task. Yet this is accomplished most of the time in a seemingly effortless manner by the man at the helm of the ship, C.H.S. Now in his sixteenth year of commanding the Broncos, he is a man ever on the outlook for methods whereby our school can be improved. Many innovations have come about under his guidance, and we of the annual staff wish to acknowledge the contributions this fine person has made to enrich the lives of all who attend Coopersville High School.

"Custodians Extraordinary" is the only term fittingly suitable for the staff of men who spend the night hours tidying the corridors of Coopersville Senior High School. So noteworthy and commendable is the job they do that many persons who visit the school comment on its cleanliness and the manner in which it is kept. Too many of us are unappreciative of their untiring efforts and make their task even more difficult with our careless habits. To these diligent chasers of grime and litter we doff our respective chapeaux!

Cooks

Our cooks—Mrs. Baldus and Mrs. Van Aelst—mash a batch of potatoes as Mrs. Shook supervises.

As scrumptious as the meals which they prepare daily are our three full-time cooks. The work that these women do to set an example for correct nutrition by serving type A meals often is unappreciated when some of the menus are not the "favorites" of the students. Assisting the able cooks are the kitchen crew who come in to help at various times during the day and in return receive their noon meal without charge. It would be obvious to anyone who would review the kitchen operations that this is not a profit making activity but a true service to the community and the students.

This, students, represents another successful run by our faithful bus drivers.

Bus Drivers

Our bus drivers are those trusty and brave individuals who deposit us safely at the school door each morning and rush us home again at the end of the day. They must be a rugged group, for we are often eager to work out our excess energy on our rides to and from school. We hope, however, that they will continue to transport us with the same consistency and efficiency that they have displayed lo, these many years.

Thinking of that class roller skating party held in Ravenna makes one reflect on his primary boy-girl relationships. We really had fun though, which eliminated the possibility of our having a class picnic at the close of the year. We began to participate enthusiastically in sports, band, vocal music, and various clubs—building a foundation of service and leadership in extra-curricular activities as well as scholastic pursuits.

. . . When we returned in the fall as sophomores, not the "youngest". Our officers - President, Alvina Buist; Vice President, Jerry Bos; Secretary, Jerry Longnecker; Treasurer, Dick Holman; and Historian, Mel Bos - anticipated the kind of wonderful prom which we would be presenting as juniors by levying dollar dues on each class member. We frolicked on the hayride in the fall of the year. As a serious project, you might remember, we sponsored a fund drive for Ed Witcop, a Muskegon football player who had been injuried critically. Of course, we all have tokens of the big event of this year when we picked out our class rings. They really are handsome! For exercise an all-games party was held in the gym in the spring of the year.

. . . "Our prom" was the event around which our junior year orbited. President, Bill McDaniel; Vice President, Ken Stevens; Secretary, Marilyn Van Aelst; and treasurer, John Ryan began the plans for financing it by deciding on class dues of a dollar and a half for each member. The entire class worked hard at selling stationery and Christmas cards, candy bars, or arranging dances after football and basketball games. Adding substantially to the treasury was the profit from our play, "Professor, How Could You!" Work preceded "our prom" as we spent May 29, 30, and 31 preparing the cafeteria, gymnasium, and home ec. room for the stupendous event. It was silly, hard-working fun! We will not soon forget our firsts—in the gymnasium, a midnight buffet, a one o'clock curfew, and recreation in addition to dancing. There were parties before and parties after, and we all had a fun, fantastic time.

. . . We all wanted to graduate, but not leave the security of high school. Our officers who led us through this last year were President, Dick Holman; Vice President, Barry Draft; Secretary, Anne Meyering; and Treasurer, Wayne Meerman. Our only major activity during the year, besides trying to get jobs or into college, was the senior play, "Old Doc". It was a real sell-out! We remember the prom, baccalaureate, senior early exams, commencement, senior pictures, ordering announcements, measuring for caps and gowns, all typically "senior", and they they are a thing of the past.

Activities

Homecoming 1963

Festivities for the 1963 Homecoming began with the decorating of floats for the annual pre-game parade led by the band down Main Street and voting for the court.

A large bonfire and our vivacious cheerleaders were the center of the Pep Rally held Thursday night. Enthusiasm reached a high point as the students took part in the popular snake dance.

Homecoming 1963

After an exciting football game with our opponents from Fremont, the dance was the ultimate highlight of the week. "Camelot in Autumn," the theme, provided a perfect setting for our king and queen; and with them the court received the honor traditionally given. The crowning of our royalty was the climax of the event. As the evening sped away, another Homecoming was again history, but pleasant memories will always remain.

Student Council

Post Student Council gathering—Anne Mey ing, Dan Tibbe, Ron Fynewever, Bruce Wh and Bob Bobosky—ponder student proble

An active student governing body is the only way to describe this year's Student Council. To finance the projects, which the council feels are necessary, it has sold doughnuts and school pins, held an after-the game dance, sponsored a talent assembly at the Band Parents Carnival, and operated the bookstore as a convenience to the students. With these funds it has been possible to help send two students to Europe for the summer on the Youth for Understanding program, install a suggestion box for those who would like to contribute ideas to the Student Council, and purchase the long needed plaques indicating which gifts were given to the school by whom. The responsibility of providing educational and entertaining assemblies for students and practical homecoming rules have been carried out by this ambitious and conscientious group.

National Honor Society

The Honor Society officers compare notes on a recent meeting.

Advancing the ideals of the National Honor Society —Leadership, Scholarship, Character, and Service— are the members of the Coopersville Chapter. Under the leadership of the officers—Robert Bobosky, Kenneth Stevens, Anne Meyering, and Glenn Fitzpatrick —the chapter has engaged in service projects to the school. These have included a Christmas tree in the high school office and the presentation of an outdoor flag to the school. To raise money for financing these and other projects, the chapter sold Christmas and all-occasion bows in the fall and protective annual covers in the spring.

At the monthly meetings the honor society has been privileged to have a variety of speakers from the faculty. The March induction of new members has insured the continuing promotion of the society's ideals and its service to the school.

Annual Staff

"Double, double, toil and trouble" could refer to the activity which has been brewing in the Publications Room every morning this year. After casting a considerable amount of spells and incantations, we at last came up with this year's annual, which we are proud to present to you, as the finished product of our concerted efforts.

Debate

This year's debate team came through the season with many nors. In the State tournament their record was 6-2. This quali- ed them for an award from the Detroit Free Press. In the District eet they won four and lost two, which enabled them to be one of e three teams from this district to go on to the Regionals. They ere eliminated in the Regional meet by Godwin Heights of Grand apids. Because of his eloquent abilities, Robert Bobosky was osen best debater of the forty-four in the District and competed Ann Arbor with winners from other districts for a scholarship. e as a school are very proud of Laurel Harpst, Sven Jensen, obert Bobosky, and Kenneth Stevens, and their coach, Mr. Bus- an. It is our wish that they will continue to excel in future years.

Bob Bobosky, Mr. Busman, Ken Stevens, Sven Jensen, and Laurel Harpst enjoy looking over their debating award.

Sentinel Staff

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Van Doorn, the SENTINEL staff gathers information for and publishes our school's tri-weekly paper, the SENTINEL. Items of interest along with book reviews, class news, and compositions by various students make up this paper. Each organization has a reporter who is responsible for the news reports, and the finished paper is run off by the second year typing classes.

Although it is not a large organization, this group is a vital part of our school life, and the members of the staff do a fine job of keeping the students of C.H.S. informed.

Pat Burke, Sharon Bakes, and Jennifer Van Dussen do some of the final work on the latest edition of THE SENTINEL.

Sven Jensen is congratulated by Dr. Lown upon his selection for Junior Rotary.

Junior Rotary

Junior Rotary officers for the 1963-64 school year were:

President ..... Bruce White
Vice President ..... Sven Jensen
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Dick Holman

Mr. Vassallo's exceptional leadership of this group, along with the determination and drive of its members, has set a precedent for the future Junior Rotarians. They showed their perseverance by raising funds for the new Rotary signs. Being members of Rotary International has brought to light its importance to the community and the nation.

Geography Club

Ninth grade students enrolled in geography who have a desire to learn more about the various countries have the opportunity to attend the regular meetings of the Geography Club. The club has heard several speakers who showed slides with their lectures. They enjoyed a Latin American Christmas Party. The club is under the leadership of Miss Mary Teal and Mr. Talmadge Keenan. Officers for the year follow:

President ..... Karlyn Fellows
Vice President ..... John Gale
Secretary ..... Mary Rackes
Treasurer ..... Mike Ripka
Historian ..... Robin Heydenberk

Student Librarians efficiently run the library.

Library Club

A vital part of every student's life is the library, ably conducted by the student librarians and Mr. Rolland Bennett. The Officers of the Library Club are: president, Joel Lemieux; vice president, Becky Greep; secretary, Carol Andrews; treasurer, Gerry Maka; Historian, Wanda Shepard; and Sentinel reporter, Wilma Van Wienen.

The sale of paper back books which the Library Club began last year was discontinued for this year, but plans are being made to reinstate this activity next year. However, the librarians are busy with the routine library chores and showing movies in the classrooms.

Several of the student librarians attended the Student Library Assistants Asociation of Michigan (SLAAM) in the fall and the spring.

Bob Robbins, Miss Ramaker, Mr. Veldman, Wilma Van Wienen, Ruth Eyer, and Bernice Ykema carefully examine some of their club policies.

Bible Club

To further the knowledge of the Bible in school is the purpose of the Bible Club. For the weekly meetings ministers of various churches and faculty members are invited to speak. This year's sponsors were Miss Ramaker and Mr. Veldman along with Rev. Richard Gordon, one of the local ministers. Voted to head the club this year were:

President ..... Carolyn Koppenol
Vice President ..... MaryAnn Heckel

Pep Club

Enthusiasm for sports is the goal of the Pep Club. Thus, this group sponsors our Homecoming. They also bought our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders" new outfits. They make possible our weekly pep rallies and special cheering sections at all our home games. Under the sponsorship of Miss Schipper, Pep Club is constantly busy working for our school. This year's officers were:

President ..... Dorothy Posobiec
Secretary ..... Linda Vargo
Treasurer ..... Elaine Longnecker

Varsity Club

To accent the importance of this very active organization, membership cards were issued this year to all members of the Varsity Club. Among its contributions were sweatsuits for the tennis team, a first aid kit for track, most valuable player plaques for varsity and girls basketball, and a blocking sled for the football team. The club has also supported the newly formed Athletic Boosters Club. A salute goes to Mr. Miller and the Varsity Club members for their outstanding accomplishments in the 1963-64 school year.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses Club is one of the very busy, very important clubs of Coopersville High School. Each meeting is a scientific meeting except the Christmas meeting when the Future Nurses do charity work and put on a program for the County Hospital patients.

They are members of a national organization who try to inform students of the high qualities required for the nursing profession and the high standards at which they must maintain their academic work.

Officers for this year were:

President ..... Jennifer Deremo
Vice President ..... Linda Busman
Secretary ..... Carol Southland
Treasurer ..... Diane Lubben

Sponsors:

Mr. Vassallo ..... Teacher
Mrs. Wenger ..... R. N.

Future Teachers' Club

The future teachers talk over new advances in education.

Preparing for experiences in the teaching profession through service and sociability is the aim of the Future Teachers' Club. Meetings are held once a month during the homeroom and noon hour period.

The projects of the club this year included Cadet Teaching at the elementary and senior high levels, helping at the Freshman Parents' Night, selling Christmas cards, calendar towels, and stationery, and decorating Valentine nut cups for the students in Mrs. Chapman's room.

Home Economics Club

Service to the school and the community is the main objective of the Home Economics Club. This is achieved by serving dinners at school functions, sponsoring the "Backdoor" where refreshments are provided for students attending the dances, and having food sales for students throughout the year.

Each year the club donates money to various charity organizations, helping them carry on their particular service. A second objective of the club is to encourage certain projects relating to Homemaking, and a third goal is to improve the facilities of the homemaking department in this school.

Officers for this past year were:

President ..... Dianne Lubben
Vice President ..... Marilyn Carr
Secretary ..... Donna Corner
Treasurer ..... Kathy Hecksel
Reporter ..... Hattie Forist
Advisor ..... Mrs. Meyering

All the agricultural students are invited to be members of the Future Farmers Association. The organization has been very active during this past year. During the first semester members sold various items to raise money for the club. The top sellers were Jim McKinley, first; John Dryer, second; and Bob Clark, John Fritz, Harry Mullin, and Tom Lucas, third.

On February 6 the agricultural students traveled via bus to MSU for Farmers' Week. The day proved to be an interesting and educational experience.

This year's club produced a real winner. William Rupert won the Public Speaking Contest at Rockford as the representative from Coopersville.

Varsity Choir

Keeping up with all of the extra performances has been a real task for the vocal music department this year. The organizations here pictured have given performances all over western Michigan. Many churches, service organizations, an operetta, festivals, a television broadcast, county institute, and several others were among these appearances.

New risers were purchased by the department, and a quartet was entered for the first time in the S.P.E. B.S.Q.S.A. district competition. Officers of Varsity Choir this year were the following:

President ..... Jim Holman
Vice President ..... Jerry Klein
Secretary ..... Elaine Longnecker
Treasurer ..... Bob Lothschutz

Mr. Miller

This year's varsity squad had its best season in three years. The indomitable spirit of these "never-say-die" Broncos was a real inspiration to Coopersville's loyal fans. Dick Holman captained the team and was also named its most valuable player. Two men made the 1963 Seaway All-Conference Team — Steve Barkel and Ron Fynewever. Three men were also given honorable mention on this squad — Dick Holman, Barry Draft, and Bob Willard. There will be thirteen graduating seniors. To the team, Coach Miller, and Coach Kilpatrick a hearty three cheers and good wishes for a still better season in '64.

Mr. Kilpatrick.

Showing some strong promise of good things to come, this year's reserve team had a highly successful seasor. One of the team's outstanding attributes was their desire to win; a second was the fine sportsmanship constantly displayed. Their "togetherness" was really something to see, and it was clearly evident at all times. A special commendation goes to Joe Dyke for scoring one hundred of the points piled up by the team; to Terry Schubert for his brilliant defensive play; to Steve Richards for averaging better than five tackles per game; and to Warren Smith for his superior kicking. To the team, to Coach Keenan, and to his assistant, Mr. Reynolds, we take off our hats for a job well done.

Reserve Basketball

Piling up a rather impressive total of ten wins and six losses, our reserve basketball team displayed some fine playing this season. Particularly distinguishing themselves were the following boys: Joe Dyke scoring 161 points, Doug Lemmen scoring 152 points, Ken Key scoring 149 points, Jim Gates with 138 points, and Mel Troutwine who tallied 82 points for the Bronces. Congratulations to our reserve team and their fine coach, Mr. Jay Veldman, for their often excellent brand of ball.

Varsity Basketball

While the record of wins is not impressive for this year's Varsity Basketball Team, they played a pretty fair game of ball this year—losing several games by only a basket or two. Several men distinguished themselves as follows: Bob Veeneman was high scorer, voted by his teammates as most valuable player, and made the All-Conference team. Stan Bush was co-captain and did a fine job at the guard position. Steve Barkel also could be a real threat at guard next year, and Bob Willard and Larry Lemmen should also distinguish themselves next year. For their fine spirit in a tough season these men and their coach, Mr. Edward Kilpatrick, deserve real commendation.

Girls basketball under the able coaching of Miss Esther Streeter has become one of the fine traditions here at Coopersville High School. This year's team played a fine grade of ball all season, showing a marked improvement in their play as the season progressed. No one stood out in a particularly singular manner, but excellent team work was evident at all times. Two girls were singled out for special recognition—Pat Drooger as the most valuable player and Carolyn De Vries was put on the All-conference team. Congratulations, girls, for a job well done.

Ken Stevens

Piling up a really impressive record of wins, 7-1, our Cross Country team, in only its second year, deserves real credit. A display of fine running, consistently done, was given by five of our worthy Broncos—Wayne Meerman; captain, Ken Stevens, Stan Zemaitis, Ken Key, and Jim Hoban. Cross Country, a sport becoming more popular each year, involved several large meets, and the local team proved themselves every time—placing fourth at Fennville, third in the regionals, and tenth in the state. Meerman did an exceptionally fine job, coming in first in most of the local meets, and the school will miss both him and Stevens next year. A hearty "well done" is due both the team and their coach, Mr. Veldman.

Varsity Cheerleaders

This fall our C. H. S. promotors of the yell attended the Cheerleading Clinic at Western Michigan University. Here they acquired many new ideas in furthering sports enthusiasm, which they promptly proceeded to pass on to our student body. This year's varsity captain was Marilyn VanAelst, and the Pep Club is their sponsor. For their untiring efforts to elicit cheers from a sometimes apathetic student body we of the annual staff salute their prodigious efforts.

C. Holman, T. Averill, C. Baldus, E. Bradley, M. Brown, H. Schmidt.

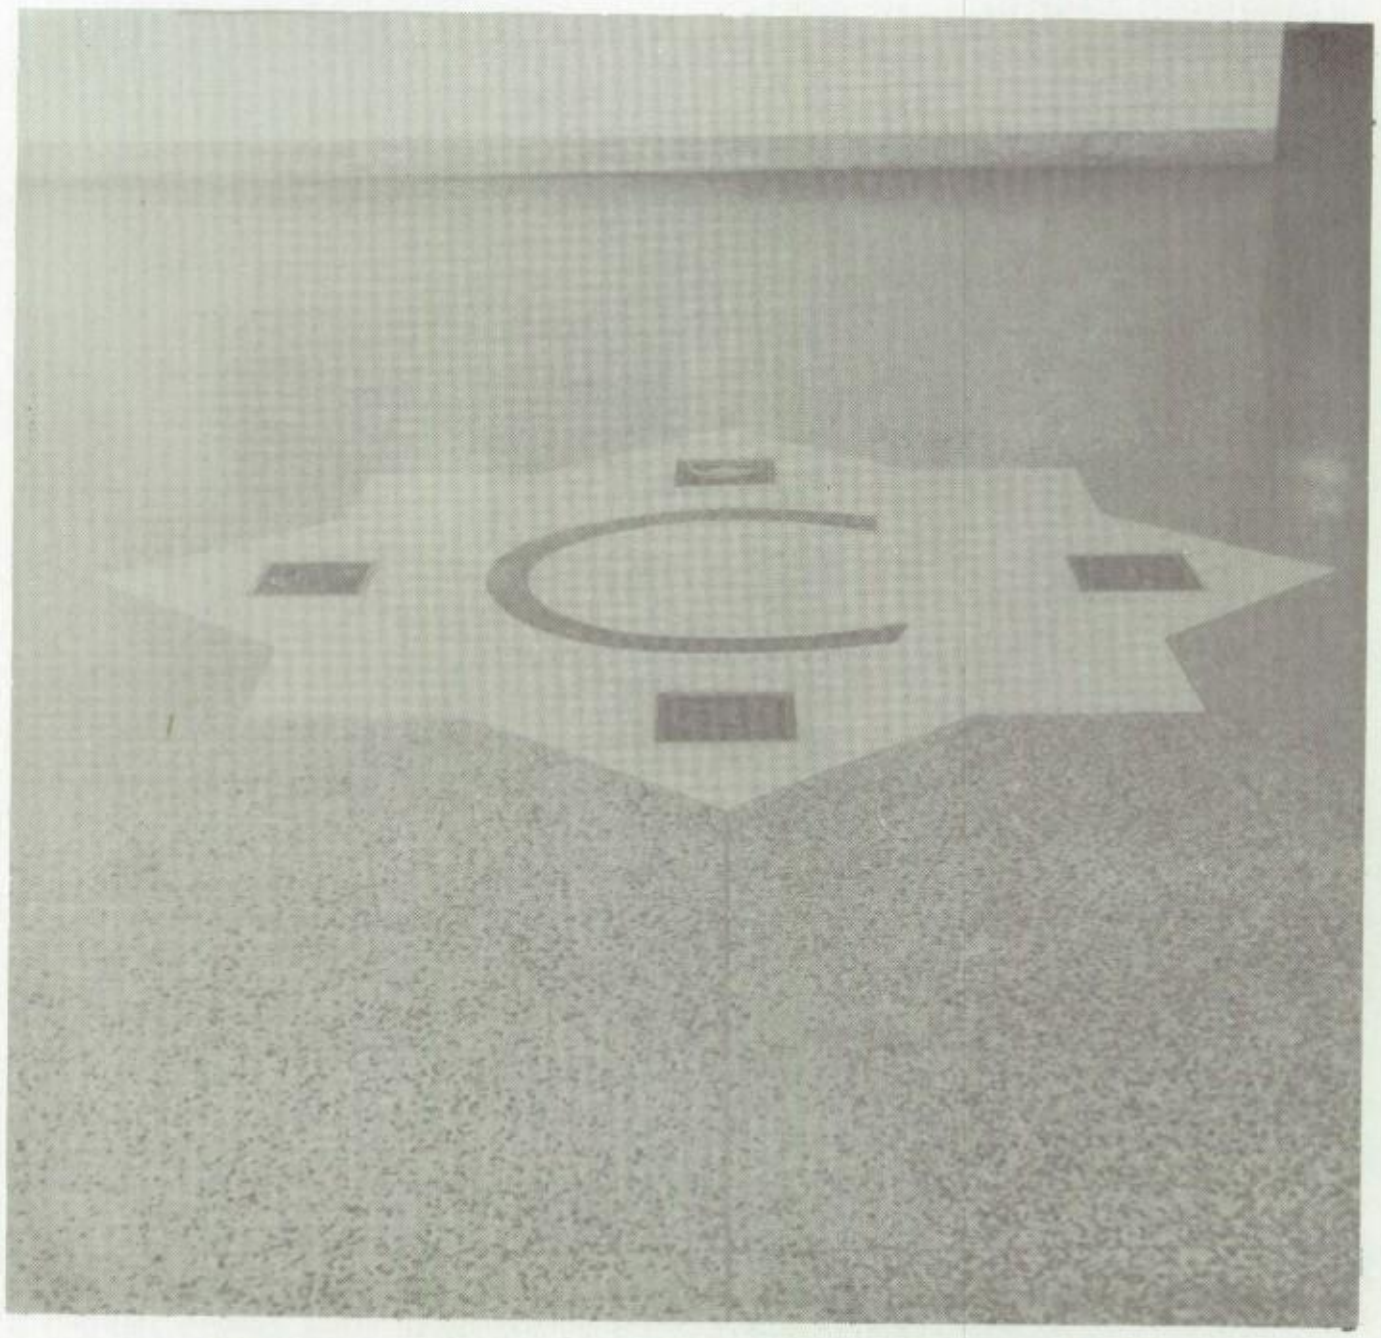
CITIZENSHIP

SCHOLARSHIP



SPORTSMANSHIP

This floor design, a gift of the Class of 1959, is intended to convey these meanings.

The large green "C" with a white background, of course, stands for Coopersville and the school colors.

The bronze lamp of knowledge emblem at the top represents the things above all others for which the school stands, that is knowledge, learning, scholarship.

School, state, national and world citizenship are represented by the seal of the State of Michigan, on the left.

On the right is the scales of justice denoting the moral, ethical and religious standards that students should receive in high school.

A healthy body must be the basis of mental, citizenship, and moral training. Thus the laurel wreath at the bottom stands for physical education, athletics and sportsmanship.

The irregular shape of the whole figure denotes the various aspects of curricular and extra-curricular activities in which a student may participate. The lines radiating from the center through various shades of terrazzo indicate the different directions students take following graduation.
